HEAD TEACHER'S MESSAGE

We believe that at LPS, we produce well-rounded children. Academic excellence is taken for granted, but in the 21st century it is no longer enough to be successful. This week our wide range of clubs started for the term and it has been good to see so many of our pupils pursuing an established interest or tasting something new.

Individual instrumental lessons are also getting underway during the school day. One of the advantages of our new timetable is that the pupil will miss a different lesson each week, so no one subject will be hit repeatedly.

Every day this week, Mr Okosodo and I have visited each class to find out what they are up to. We have been pleased to see the interesting work being done and the enthusiasm of the children to learn. Without doubt the efforts of the teachers and the hard work of the children are strengths of the school.

On Wednesday, I met the Parent Year Representatives for an induction meeting. There is more information elsewhere in the newsletter about their role and remaining vacancies should you wish to volunteer. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the Parent Year Representatives in advance for the fantastic job I am sure they are going to do.

The PTA is already hard at work preparing for Fun Day in November. I'm sure you will receive more details in the near future.

I have received details from the GSA, HMC and the Society of Heads on their Senior School Scholarships for 2018. If you would like to know more please contact me.

We are into the second cycle of our new 6-Day Timetable and I would like to thank everyone for making the introduction so smooth. Next week: Monday - Day 3, Tuesday - Day 4, Wednesday - Day 5, Thursday - Day 6, Friday - Day 1

REINTRODUCING...

By popular demand, we are delighted to reintroduce and welcome Mr Oseibhi Okosodo our Deputy Head Teacher to LPS. Mr Okosodo joined us from BIS where he was the Vice Principal for the last 4 years.

Before that, he was Head of Upper School and a Mathematics teacher. A teacher for over 20 years, he has previously worked at a variety of schools including Atlantic Hall in Ikeja. We are sure he will bring a wealth of experience and ideas to LPS, particularly in the Secondary phase.

The Head and Deputy Head Teachers went on a tour of the school helping everyone settle in nicely.
