

Home Economics

Students will be developing hand sewing and research skills. They will also be able to identify different tools that are used for sewing and produce simple objects using patterns and stitches.

Mathematics

- Algebra
- Fractions
- Angles
- Coordinates and graphs
- Percentages

Art & Design

SELF IMAGE

Portrait drawing

Group discussions as to what portraits are, why they are made.

Drawing a generic human face as a proportion template.

Develop A4 size self portrait (shaded pencil drawing) based on proportion template.

Computer Studies

Searching the Internet and collecting information

Types of information, gathering information, searching information, Assessing information, reliability, accuracy and relevance

English

- Media techniques in developing language skills,
- Speaking and listening: Developing presentational and debating skills.
- Writing to persuade, argue and advise
- Critical reading: Understanding increasingly critical text, inferring and deducing information
- Poetic Forms: learning how language, (including figurative language), vocabulary choice, grammar and organizational features enhancing meaning, definitions of poetic vocabulary.
- Grammar: topic sentences, paragraphs and sentence structure.
- Analysing and comparing poems
- Evaluate, identify and explain the overall purpose and effect of a poem supporting this with close reference you the poem studied.

Year 7 Curriculum Overview Lent 2020

French

- Family and nationality
- Use of tenses
- Sports and life in school

Geography

- About the UK - Your island home
- Glaciers - movement of ice and landforms it creates

Music/Drama

(Music) Rhythmic and melodic dictation

- World focus: Latin American music
- Aladdin music

(Drama)-Devised Theatre: Using Stimulus to create performances.

- Exploring voice, facial expression and body language.
- Play text (Aladdin)

Science

- Biology - Human reproduction and adolescence.
- Chemistry - Exploring chemical reactions and introduction to writing chemical equations.
- Physics - Investigating Sound and Light, behaviour of waves and applying this to the working of the eye and ear

History

Edward I

Why is he remembered as a great king?

Assimilation of England and Wales

Creation of Britain

Focus on key historical figures

Physical Education

Sports Day Practicex: Selecting pupils for running, jumping, throwing and other Sports Day activities.

Basketball: They develop skills in finding space and keeping control of a ball and use a basic court set - up.

Swimming: Teaching to be more efficient in water through developing proficiency across all strokes, butterfly, breaststroke, backstroke and freestyle. Develop proper streamline position, breakout, kicking and pulling, breathing techniques across all strokes. Survival & Lifesaving skills, Water Polo play strategies & Relay races.

Business Studies

Ankani project {Business in practice}

- Specialization & division of labour
- Adding value
- Classification of business
- Business plan

P.H.S.E.

A range of topics are explored including Friendships and Coping with Shyness.